Thai version of the Book of Needs comes out

The Thai version of the Book of Needs, Part I, has come out. It has been translated and edited by Orthodox Thais – Archpriest Danay (Daniel) Vanna, Ms. Napatra Aphichataphong and others. The book has been edited by Archimandrite Oleg (Cherepanin), representative of the Russian Orthodox Church in Thailand.

The edition has been financed by the Foundation of the Orthodox Church in Thailand and the logistical work has been carried out by the Parish of the Trinity in Phuket.

Copies of the Book of Needs will be given to the clergy and church workers who work in Thailand and to the Theological School in the Phuket Island.

The presentation of the book is planned to take place on December 19 as part of the 15th anniversary of Orthodoxy celebrations in Thailand, the website of the ROC Thailand representation reports.
