

Chancellor of Ukrainian Orthodox Church meets with Catholicos-Patriarch Iliya II of All Georgia

February 21, 2019 – Metropolitan Anthony of Borispol and Brovary, chancellor of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, met with His Holiness and Beatitude Iliya II, Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia, at his residence in the city of Tbilisi.

Metropolitan Anthony was accompanied by Archpriest Nikolas Danilevich, vice-chairman of the UOC department for external church relations.

Present at the meeting were hierarchs of the Georgian Orthodox Church including Metropolitan Shio of Senaki and Chkhototsku, Patriarchal Locum Tenens; Metropolitan Gerasim of Zugdidi and Tsaishi, Metropolitan Andrew of Gori and Ateni; Bishop Vakhtang of Nikortsminda; Metropolitan Theodore of Akhaltsikhi and Tao-Klarjeti; Archpriest Michael Botkoveli, secretary to the Catholicos-Patriarch; Protopresbyter George Zciadze; and Archpriest Andrew Jagmadze, head of the Patriarch of Georgia press-center.

The meeting was held in a warm and fraternal atmosphere. They discussed the church situation in Ukraine in the in world of Orthodoxy.

Ukrainian Orthodox Church Information-Education Department

DECR Communication Service

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/46611/>