The message reads as follows:

I cordially greet you with the great and joyful feast of the Nativity of the Eternal Son and the Word of God.

‘When the fullness of time had come’ (Gal 4:4) the Saviour of the world has come in the City of David to deliver humanity from sin. The Creator of the universe ‘emptied himself, taking the form of a slave’ (Phil 2:7). That is why the Heavenly Powers sing in amazement: ‘Glory to Thy condescension, O Only Lover of man’ (Stanza, Great Vespers for the Nativity of Christ). Being filled with adoration and awe before the great mysteries of God, we, together with the angels glorify the incarnate Lord who has shown his ineffable mercy to us.

On this festive day I wholeheartedly wish you peace and joy, good health and many years of life, and wellbeing and spiritual joy to the flock entrusted to your care.

With reverential love in Christ who has been born,

+ KIRILL

PATRIARCH OF MOSCOW AND ALL RUSSIA
