Representative of the Russian Orthodox Church attends enthronement of Bishop Kirill of Buenos Aires and South and Central America

On 2 September 2018, Metropolitan Amfilohije of Montenegro and the Littoral, administrator of the diocese of Buenos Aires and South and Central America of the Serbian Orthodox Church, celebrated the Divine Liturgy and the rite of enthronement of Bishop Kirill of Buenos Aires and South and Central America at the Church of the Nativity of the Most Holy Theotokos in Buenos Aires.

Taking part in the service were Metropolitan Ignaty of Argentina and South America, representative of the Russian Orthodox Church, and hierarchs from various Orthodox jurisdictions in South America.

After the service Metropolitan Amfilohije addressed all those present with a homily.

Based on the information from the website of the Serbian Orthodox Church

DECR Communication Service

Source: https://mospat.ru/en/news/47235/