

Primate of the Romanian Orthodox Church arrives in Moscow

December 2, 2017 – His Beatitude Daniel, Patriarch of Romania, has arrived in Moscow for the celebrations devoted to the centenary of the restoration of Patriarchate in the Russian Orthodox Church.

At Sheremetyevo airport the high guest was met by Metropolitan Veniamin of Orenburg and Saraktash, Bishop Iriney of Orsk and Gay and Archpriest Vladimir Alexandrov, DECR. The welcoming party included Romanian ambassador to Russia, Mr. Soare.

The delegation of the Romanian Patriarchate includes Metropolitan Nifon of Târgoviște, Archpriest Michael Tița, Archpriest Ștefan Ababei, Rev. Eugeniu Rogoti, and Archdeacon Maxim (Țifui).

DECR Communication Service

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/47916/>