His Holiness Patriarch Kirill sends greetings to the Primate of the Orthodox Church of Poland with his Nameday

His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Russia congratulated His Beatitude Metropolitan Sawa of Warsaw and All Poland on his Nameday by sending the following greeting:

Your Beatitude,

Beloved in the Lord Brother and Concelebrant:

I wholeheartedly congratulate you on your Nameday.

You try to model yourself on the example of your heavenly patron, St. Sawa of Serbia, and as “the good shepherd” (Jn 10:11) and father care for the people of God, diligently enlightening the contemporaries with the light of Christ’s truth.

I wish Your Beatitude “all joy and peace in believing” (Rom 15:13), gracious physical strength and abundant God’s help in your primatial ministry.

With warm recollections of our recent fraternal meeting in Moscow,

+ KIRILL

PATRIARCH OF MOSCOW AND ALL RUSSIA
