

Serbian ambassador visits Department for External Church Relations

On July 13, 2016, Metropolitan Hilarion of Volokolamsk, head of the Moscow Patriarchate's department for external church relations (DECR), met with the Serbian Ambassador to Russia S. Terzic.

Present at the meeting was A. Khoshev, DECR secretariat for inter-Orthodox relations.

During the talk, which was held in a warm atmosphere, the sides discussed a number of matters of mutual concern related to the development of traditionally good relations between the two nations spiritually nourished by the Russian and Serbian Orthodox Churches.

In conclusion of the meeting the DECR chairman presented his guest with a token of the meeting.

DECR Communication Service