

His Holiness Patriarch Kirill celebrates at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit in Minsk

On 20 June 2015, His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Russia celebrated Matins at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit in Minsk.

The service, during which prayers were offered up for all saints who shone forth in Byelorussian land, was broadcast on the screens set in front of the cathedral.

After the service, metropolitan Pavel greeted His Holiness and presented him with an icon of St. Cyril of Turov and liturgical vestments.

His Holiness presented liturgical vessels to the cathedral, an icon of the Holy Trinity to the Religious Education Centre, and small icons of St. Vladimir with Patriarchal blessing to the worshippers.
