Assembly of Orthodox Bishops in Spain and Portugal meets in Madrid

Bishop Nestor of Chersonese attended a regular session of the Assembly of Orthodox Bishops in Spain and Portugal, which took place on March 18, 2015, in Madrid.

Participating in the session were Metropolitan Polykarpos of Spain and Portugal (Patriarchate of Constantinople), Bishop Luke of Western Europe (Serbian Patriarchate), and Bishop Timotei of Spain and Portugal (Patriarchate of Romania).

The Assembly was established in compliance with the decision made by the 4th Pan-Orthodox Conference in 2009 in Chambesy.

After a discussion, the Assembly signed a notarial act in Spain's Ministry of Justice. From now on, the Assembly can officially represent before the Spanish government bodies the interests of the Orthodox faithful of all canonical jurisdictions, the official website of the Diocese of Chersonese reports.
