

Moscow Theological Academy donates books to University of Skopje

On February 6, 2015, the Ss Cyril and Methodius University of Skopje in a solemn ceremony received books donated by Moscow Theological Academy as part of the cooperation agreement concluded between the two schools in 2013.

The contribution to the university's library including two sets of Orthodox Encyclopaedia and St. Macarius of Moscow's History of the Russian Church was presented, with the blessing of the MTA rector, Archbishop Yevgeny of Vereya, to the rector of the University of Skopje, Prof. B. Stojkovski, by Prof. A. Pentakovsky, head of the MTA Balkans office.

Present at the ceremony of Russian ambassador to Macedonia, Mr. O. Shcherbak.

DECR Communication Service