His Holiness Patriarch Kirill's condolences over death of Pope Francis' relatives in traffic accident

His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Russia expressed his condolences to Pope Francis over the death of his relatives in a traffic accident.

His Holiness FRANCIS

The Pope of Rome

Your Holiness,

Please accept my profound condolences over the tragic death of your loved ones in a traffic accident. With brotherly sympathy, I share your grief for the grave loss of your relatives so dear to your heart.

May Christ, the Lover of Mankind, give rest in the dwellings of the righteous to those who have passed away and send to your nephew a speedy recovery and to Your Holiness His consolation and abundant help in all courses of your life.

With love in the Lord,

+ KIRILL

Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia

Source: https://mospat.ru/en/news/51161/