

The Russian Orthodox Church unceasingly raises her voice in the international arena in defense of her brothers and sisters in Syria, subjected to constant attacks from armed mercenaries who sow evil, death and terror in the Syrian land. We will continue our struggle until peace is re-established in Syria.

May the All-Merciful Lord grant the soonest release to the abducted hierarchs and peace to the Syrian people.

With love in Christ,

+Hilarion

Metropolitan of Volokolamsk

Chairman

Department for External Church Relations
