Metropolitan Hilarion of Volokolamsk's 10-episode documentary serial 'Man before God' to be repeated

On July 7, the Kultura TV channel begins the repetition of the 10-episode documentary serial 'Man before God' by Metropolitan Hilarion of Volokolamsk. Its first screening during Easter 2011 was acclaimed by viewers as a great success.

The series represents a guidebook on Orthodoxy. The first film is intended for those who wish or feel the need to drop in a church but knows little about what the church of God is, how it is arranged and, most importantly, how to behave in it. The subsequent films are about the icon, the sacraments and rites of the Orthodox Church, about death and life after death. The serial is shown at 10.00 every Saturday.

DECR Communication Service

Source: https://mospat.ru/en/news/53955/