

Metropolitan of the Czech Lands and Slovakia awards two Russian citizens

On July 6, at his residence, His Beatitude Christopher, Archbishop of Prague, Metropolitan of the Czech Lands and Slovakia, awarded Mr. Dmitry Malyshev, adviser to the chairman of Gazprom Neft's board, and Mr. Igor Vozykov, a well-known sponsor and former top manager of the Transneft company, the highest church order – the Grand Order of Sts Cyril and Methodius, in recognition of their support for the Church of the Czech Lands and Slovakia and financial contribution to the painting of murals in the cathedral of the Michalovcie and Kosica diocese.

DECR Communication Service

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/57003/>