

DECR chairman meets with renowned Greek theologian Christos Yannaras

[gallery columns="2"]

Metropolitan Hilarion of Volokolamsk, head of the Moscow Patriarchate's department for external church relations and rector of the Church Post-Graduate School met, on 7 May 2010 at the DECR, with Prof. Christos Yannaras, a renowned Greek theologian and religious philosopher.

In a warm atmosphere they discussed various aspects of Russian-Greek cultural and academic relations.

Prof. Yannaras shared impressions of his visit to Russia and meetings and lectures he gave in educational institutions of the Russian Orthodox Church.

In conclusion of the talk, Metropolitan Hilarion presented his guest with a record of his Passions According to St. Matthews for a choir and a symphony orchestra and a copy of his book Mystery of Faith.

DECR Communication Service

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/57305/>