On February 24, His Holiness Kirill and his delegation were welcomed at Borispol airport by the Primate of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, member of the UOC Holy Synod, clergy and students of the Kiev theological schools and Ukrainian state officials. In the evening, His Holiness Kirill visited the Dormition Laura of the Caves. He was welcomed by the Laura's father superior, Archbishop Pavel of Vyshgorod, bishops of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church and the Laura's monastic community. At the Church of the Elevation of the Cross, Patriarch Kirill venerated the miracle-working Icon of the Dormition and pronounced his patriarchal benediction over the monastery's brethren.

On February 25, His Holiness Kirill and His Beatitude Vladimir said a thanksgiving at the Laura's refectory church, lifting up prayers to God for Ukraine and the Ukrainian people. Among the worshippers was Ukrainian President-elect Victor Yanukovich. Then the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts was celebrated.

The Holy Synod members praised the All-Merciful Lord for His mercy towards the Ukrainian Orthodox Church and the God-loving Ukrainian people as revealed in the opportunity for them to pray together with the Primate of the Russian Orthodox Church and expressed sincere gratitude to His Holiness for his archpastoral visit to Ukraine and spiritual support for the faithful of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church.
