

Vandalism committed against the Russian Church Representation in Jerusalem

[gallery order="DESC" columns="2"]

During the night of December 11, 2009, the walls of the Cathedral of the Trinity in the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission were defiled with graffiti in Hebrew 'Death', 'Death to Christians'. A statement was lodged with the police.

Such threats to Russian nuns and clergy belonging to Orthodox and other confessions were repeatedly made verbally before, the official website of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission in Jerusalem has reported.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/58036/>