

The Representation Church of the OCA in Moscow Scheduled for Restoration

On 3rd February 2021 the bishop of Naro-Fominsk Paramonus (Golubka), the head of the directorate for finance and logistics of the Russian Orthodox Church, chaired a meeting to discuss issues concerning the restoration of the buildings of the representation church in Moscow of the Orthodox Church in America.

The meeting was attended by the dean of the representation of the Orthodox Church in America archpriest Daniel Andreyuk, the deputy chairman of the Department for External Church Relations of the Moscow Patriarchate archpriest Nikolai Balashov, the secretary of the DECR for inter-Orthodox relations archpriest Igor Yakimchuk, the advisor to the department for the cultural heritage of the city of Moscow and interaction with religious organizations I. N. Kamenskikh, the secretary of the representation of the Orthodox Church in America priest Pavel Zuyev, the deputy director of the non-commercial unified service of the Moscow Patriarchy in its capacity as commissioner priest Mikhail Titov and the head of the department for restoration and repairs under the directorate for finance and logistics of the Russian Orthodox Church Ye. G. Inasaridze.

The buildings of the representation church of the Orthodox Church in America enjoy the status of part of Russia's cultural heritage at the federal level and are in need of widescale restoration.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/60712/>