

A summer camp for Sunday schoolchildren to take place in Norway

From August 5 to 9, 2021, a period of school holidays, an annual summer camp will take place in Dovre region, Norway, for Sunday schoolchildren of the Parish of the Holy Princess Anna of Novgorod and their parents. The program includes processions with the cross, prayer services and the Divine Liturgy.

In the year of the 800th anniversary of the Holy Great Prince Alexander Nevsky's birthday, the main theme of the Orthodox summer camp in Central Norway will be devoted to the life and spiritual feat of this saint.
