

Synod of the Patriarchal Exarchate for South-East Asia meets in session

On August 18, 2021, the Synod of the Patriarchal Exarchate for South-East Asia met in session at the hierarchal residence in the church of St. George in Surgut. It was chaired by Metropolitan Sergiy of Singapore and South-East Asia, Exarch for the Patriarchal Exarch for South-East Asia.

The session was attended by Metropolitan Pavel of Manila and Hanoi, Archbishop Feofan of Korea, and Bishop Pitirim of Jakarta, secretary of the Synod, who participated virtually in advisory capacity according to Article 7 of the Internal Provision for the Patriarchal Exarchate of South-East Asia.

The members of the Synod expressed filial gratitude to His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Russia and to the Holy Synod of the Russian Orthodox Church for their attention to the destiny of Orthodoxy in Asia, the development of the life of church communities and organization of their canonical existence.

The Synod considered a wide range of issue concerning the Patriarchal Exarchate.
