

Hierarchs of Patriarchal Exarchate of South-East Asia meet with seminarians from Indonesia and the Philippines

On August 19, 2021, Metropolitan Sergiy of Singapore and South-East Asia met with a group of seminarians from Indonesia and the Philippines at the hierarchal residence in the St. George church in the city of Surgut.

Participating in the meeting were also Metropolitan Pavel of Manila and Hanoi and Archbishop Feofan of Korea.

The hierarchs addressed themselves to the seminarians with words of edification and wishes of God's help in the important task of training for their service of the Church of Christ. In conclusion of the meeting, Metropolitan Sergiy gave the students his archpastoral benediction for the new academic year.
