

Parishioners of a captured church in Vinnitsa region: the coming of Patriarch Bartholomew has aggravated the schism

The villagers had told how at 10:00 on September 3rd in the territory of the Krasnoselski church of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church sealed earlier by the police (the church is captured by schismatics; court decisions are expected to determine to which Orthodox community it belongs) radicals of the so-called Orthodox Church of Ukraine led by 'priest' Rostislav Protsanin tore off the lock on the door of the parish house in which the community of the canonical Ukrainian Orthodox Church had held worship services for two years.
