The Parish of Great Martyr George the Conqueror in Pnompenh, Cambodia, organizes charity action for local people

On the occasion of the Feast of the Elevation of the Precious and Life-giving Cross of the Lord, the Parish of the Holy Protomartyr George the Conqueror in Pnompenh, Cambodia, organized a charity action for locals, reports the Patriarchal Exarchate of South-East Asia in the VKontakte social network.

The rector of the church, Hieromonk Paisius (Ipate). Together with sanctuary servants Daniel and Cephas had purchased school stationary and canned foods. All the collected things and foodstuffs will be given to families in need.

You can support Orthodox parishes in the Southeast countries on the official website https://exarchate.sg/donate.

DECR Communication Service

Source: https://mospat.ru/en/news/88158/