

Siberian Male Choir visits Representation of Russian Church in Damascus

On November 17, 2021, the Siberian Male Choir from Krasnoyarsk visited the Representation of the Russian Orthodox Church in Damascus.

The choir, which takes its origin from the choir of the Dormition monastery in Krasnoyarsk, was founded in 2018 on the initiative of the Governor of the Krasnoyarsk region Alexander V. Uss. The Siberian Male Choir is the laureate of nationwide and international contests and festivals.

The guests sang church hymns at the Representation's Church of St. Ignatius the God-Bearer.

Hegumen Arseny (Sokolov), representative of the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia to the Patriarch of Antioch, told the guests about the history of the Representation.
