Ukrainian Orthodox Church banned on the territory of the Zolochiv district

Communications Service of the DECR, 13.07.2022.

On 8th July at a regular session of the regional council Zolochiv district under the Lviv region the deputies adopted a resolution to ban the activities of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church on the territory of the district, according to the site of the Union of Orthodox Journalists.

“There can be no place for the Kremlin’s agents in our region! Glory to Ukraine!”, the council’s resolution states.

Earlier the Ukrainian Orthodox Church had been banned in the Lviv region and the city of Lviv.
