Moscow Theological Academy announces admissions to online English-speaking program

DECR Communication Service, 09.08.2022.

The Moscow Theological Academy has announced admissions to an English-speaking online education program.

The training offers a one-year course (9 months) on seven fundamental disciplines of the academic program ‘Orthodox Theology’ including Holy Scriptures of the Old Testament and the New Testament, Dogmatic Theology, Patrology, Basics of the Orthodox Liturgy, History of the Church and History of the Russian Orthodox Church. The graduates are awarded the standard certificate on the successful completion of the course.

The lectures are intended for training future clergy and church staff serving at the Russian Orthodox Church’s parishes abroad and already have a secular higher education and the necessary study skills, as well as for non-Russian speaking students who wish to communicate and to study the Orthodox doctrine in more detail.

The admission will last until August 30, 2022, reports the MTA press-service.

A more detailed information is available on the website of the course https://encourse.mpda.ru.

Source: https://mospat.ru/en/news/89514/