

Primate of Coptic Church protests against persecutions of Ukrainian Orthodox Church

DECR Communication Service, 10.04.2023.

His Holiness Coptic Patriarch Tawadros II sent to His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Russia a letter stating his profound sorrow over the events around the Kiev Pechersky Lavra of the Dormition. The Primate of the Coptic Church also reported that he sent a letter expressing protest over these events to the Ukrainian Embassy in Egypt.

As is known, In March 11, 2023, His Holiness Patriarch Kirill addressed a number of religious leaders in the world and representatives of international organizations due to a resurgence of state pressure on Orthodox Christians in Ukraine. Among the addressees was His Holiness Patriarch Tawadros II.
