

Administrator of the diocese of Brussels and Belgium attends festive reception on the occasion of Russia Day.

DECR Communication service, 12.06.2023.

The archbishop of Brussels and Belgium Simon attended a reception held by the Russian embassy in Belgium on the eve of the Russian Day state holiday.

Invited to the event were diplomats, scholars, doctors, businessmen and various public figures, as well as clergy and parishioners of the diocese of Brussels and Belgium of the Russian Orthodox Church who have attended this celebration for more than forty years now. In 2023 the reception was held in a particularly warm and friendly atmosphere in which those gathered could sense the festive occasion of the state holiday, reports the diocesan website.
