

Bishop of Argentina and South America Leonid visits festive reception at the Russian embassy in Argentina.

DECR Communication service, 12.06.2023.

On 8th June, the bishop of Argentina and South America Leonid attended a festive reception at the Russian embassy in Buenos Aires at the invitation of the Russian ambassador to Argentina.

The official part of the occasion was begun with the playing of the national anthems of Argentina and Russia. The head of the Russian diplomatic mission D. V. Feoktistov then greeted those present. In the informal part of the event vocal recitals of the works of Russian composers were performed, reports the website of the diocese of Argentina.
