

Representative of the Russian Orthodox Church concelebrates with bishops of the Macedonian Orthodox Church of the Ohrid Archdiocese.

DECR Communication service, 14.07.2023.

On 12th July on the feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul the rector of the metochion of the Russian Orthodox Church in the capital of Bulgaria archimandrite Vassian (Zmeyev), at the invitation of the hierarch of the Macedonian Orthodox Church of the Ohrid Archdiocese the archbishop of Kumanovo and Osogovo Gregory visited the city of Kumanovo in North Macedonia, reports the metochion website.

The festive liturgy in the Holy Trinity Cathedral was celebrated by the metropolitan of Tetove and Gostivar Joseph and the metropolitan of Kumanovo and Osogovo Gregory. Concelebrating with the bishops were archimandrite Vassian (Zmeyev) and clergy of the Macedonian Orthodox Church of the Ohrid Archdiocese.

At the end of the service archimandrite Vassian thanked metropolitan Gregory for the invitation to attend the service and presented him with a gift of a cross and encolpion as a souvenir of the occasion.

The evening before on 11th July he took part in the evening service in the Saint Nicholas Church in Kumanovo, which was led by metropolitan Gregory.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/90521/>