

Patriarchal Exarch of Southeast Asia celebrates in the capital of Malaysia

DECR Communication Service, 16.01.2024.

On January 14, the feast of the Circumcision of the Lord and the commemoration day of St. Basil the Great, Metropolitan Sergiy of Singapore and Southeast Asia, Patriarchal Exarch of Southeast Asia, celebrated Divine Liturgy at the church of St. Michael the Archangel in Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia.

Assisting the hierarch were Rev. Seraphim Choi, a cleric of the church; Rev. Iliya Melnichenko, rector of the church of St. Sergius of Radonezh on the island of Bali; and hierodeacon Yuvenaly (Marushchak).

At the end of the service, Metropolitan Sergiy delivered a sermon and congratulated Rev. Seraphim on his Nameday to be celebrated the next day. Also, the archpastor greeted new members of the church, the recently baptized Ms Ariadna and her son Michael.

Metropolitan Sergiy blessed all the parishioners and gave them sweets as a feast gift, Telegram channel of the Patriarchal Exarchate of Southeast Asia reports.

After a tea party, the archpastor, clergymen and parishioners were invited to a Christmas performance by children of the parish Sunday school. The performance being over, Metropolitan Sergiy once again congratulated the parishioners on the feast and addressed a word of exhortation to them.
