

Parish in Uganda holds meeting to help bereaved families

DECR Communication Service, 14/02/2024

On 11th February 2024, the Parish of Archangel Michael in Gulu town, Uganda, organized a meeting for the clergy and community members on how to cope with bereavement.

Catechist Victor Okello discussed with the audience various issues of moral theology and theodicy.

As website of the Patriarchal Exarchate of Africa reports, such meetings are aimed to support people who have lost their loved ones.
