Five years ago, by the decision of the Holy Synod of the Russian Orthodox Church,

Metropolitan Pavel of Khanty-Mansiysk was appointed administrator of the Philippines and Vietnam Diocese. “I remember when first coming here I only saw Father Joachim for there were no other local priests,” the hierarch said, “And you can see how many priests we have now. Is there a greater joy than to have God with us? When God is with us, we fear nothing – neither sorrows, nor illnesses, nor obstacles.”

“Dear brothers and sisters, we are children of one Father – our God, and although we live in different climatic conditions, we are united in Christ. So time and again I thank our Lord for His loving-kindness towards us,” the archpastor added.
