

Primate of the Albanian Church extends condolences for victims of terrorist attack in Krasnogorsk near Moscow

DECR Communication Service, 24.03.2024.

His Beatitude Archbishop Anastasios of Tirana and All Albania has sent condolences to His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Rus' for the victims of the terrorist attack at the Crocus City Hall in Krasnogorsk, Moscow region, on 22 March 2024.

The letter reads:

We, the clergy and people of the Orthodox Autocephalous Albanian Church, share with grievous pain the tribulation of the heinous terrorist attack that entailed death and injuries of dozens of people, including children. We pray wholeheartedly to the Lord, beseeching Him to give rest to the souls of the innocent victims, grant a speedy recovery to the injured and consolation to their near and dear. We will continue to pray for peace to reign throughout the world, being “patient in tribulation, constant in prayer” (Rom 12:12).

With sincere love in Christ our Savior,

+ ANASTASIOS,

Archbishop of Tirana, Durrës and All Albania
