

DECR deputy chairman celebrates on the patronal feast at Ss Peter and Paul church in Karlovy Vary

DECR Communication Service, 13.07.2024.

On July 12, the commemoration day of the holy prime apostles Peter and Paul, the patronal feast of the church of Ss Peter and Paul was celebrated at the Russian Orthodox Church's Metochion in Karlovy Vary, Czech Republic.

Officiating at the festive service was archpriest Nikolai Lischenyuk, rector of the church of Ss Peter and Paul, deputy chairman of the Moscow Patriarchate's Department for External Church Relations. He was assisted by archpriest Vladimir Abrosimov, rector of the Prague church of the holy martyr Lyudmila of Czechia, and archpriest George Oros of the Diocese of Prague, the Orthodox Church of the Czech Lands and Slovakia,

After the Divine Liturgy and procession with the cross, Fr Nikolai delivered a sermon and congratulated parishioners on the feast.

Afterwards, a festive meal was offered to all those gathered for the celebration.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/91976/>