

Patriarchal Exarchate of Africa has published a service book in Malagasy.

DECR Communication service, 01.11.2024

A service book in Malagasy has been published for the clergy of the South African Diocese of the Patriarchal Exarchate of Africa in the Republic of Madagascar.

The translation and editing were carried out by the dean, Father Nikolai Ramarusun, Father Makary Ratudzunantenaina, Father Vasily Randrianaivu, and Father Alexey Lalatiana under the guidance of the assistant to the Exarch for religious education and catechization, Archpriest Tigran Khachatryan.

The service books were printed in Kursk at the "Publishing House VIP" printing house, reports the website of the Patriarchal Exarchate of Africa.

As Father Alexey reported, copies of the new edition have already been handed over to the local priests. Thus, on October 17, at the parish of Saint Nectarios in the city of Mahajanga, Father Vasily Randrianaivu and Father Nectarios Andriamanana celebrated the Liturgy in their native language using the new service book.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/92436/>