

Traditional Christmas Readings take place in Melbourne

DECR Communication Service, 08/12/2024

The traditional Christmas Readings were held at the Stavropegic Parish of the Holy Trinity of the Russian Orthodox Church (Moscow Patriarchate) in Melbourne, Australia.

The parish's educational centre "Istok" and folk music and dance group "Zabava" gave a literary and musical performance dedicated to the anticipation of coming into the world of Christ the Divine Infant.

The parishioners heard the Holy Scripture readings, church hymns, fragments from musical works by Russian composers and poems about the Nativity of Christ.
