Parishioners of the church in Brasilia collect and donate food to the needy in Nova Petropolis

DECR Communications Service, 18.12.2024.

The parish of the church dedicated to the ‘Hodegetria’ icon of the Mother of God in Brasilia, the Federative Republic of Brazil, and the Embassy of Russia in Brazil, organized a charity event to help families in Nova Petropolis satellite of the town of Planaltina, the state of Goiás.

On December 14, Rev. Francisco de Assis da Cruz Feitosa, rector of the church, and representatives of the diplomatic mission presented the collected food baskets to sixty-one families in need.

Over the last sixteen years, the parish has been providing aid to the deprived and economically disadvantaged living in the municipality, the Telegram channel of the Diocese of Argentina and South America reports.
