

Head of Hebron Governorate visits metochion of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission on the feast of the Nativity of Christ.

DECR Communication service, 10.01.2025.

On 7th January, the day of the feast of Christ's Nativity, the head of the Hebron Governorate Haled Dudin visited the metochion of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission of the Holy Forefathers in Hebron. The governor was accompanied by the deputy governor doctor Rafik Jaber and the heads of the security services of the Hebron Governorate.

The important guest was received by the sacristan of the metochion hieromonk Ambrosius (Ignatov). Father Ambrosius took the delegation on a short tour of the territory of the metochion and the Cathedral of the Forefathers, reports the website of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission.

A modest reception was held through the efforts of the inmates of the metochion for the esteemed guests. The governor and hieromonk Ambrosius (Ignatov) greeted each other and exchanged gifts.
