

Representatives of International Islamic University Malaysia visit Orthodox church in Kuala Lumpur

DECR Communication Service, 15/01/2024

On January 11th, Professor Mohd Noh Abdul Jalil, Deputy Dean for Student Development and Community Engagement at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), and over forty IIUM students visited the Parish of Archangel Michael in the capital of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur.

During this term, the students are studying the world religions, and they needed to visit one of the Orthodox Churches, meet with a priest and ask him questions about faith and religion in order to write an academic paper afterwards.

With the blessing of Metropolitan Sergiy of Singapore and South-East Asia, Patriarchal Exarch of South-

East Asia, welcoming the guests to the Church of Archangel Michael was its cleric, Priest Seraphim Choi. Father Seraphim and the students talked about the architecture, icon-painting and liturgical practices of the Orthodox Church, reports Telegram channel of the Patriarchal Exarchate of South-East Asia.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/92755/>