

Ruling hierarch of the Diocese of Argentine is on a jury panel at the regional stage of 'Living Classics' Competition

DECR Communication Service, 28.03.2025.

On March 26, the Russian House in Buenos Aires, the Argentine Republic, hosted the regional stage of the International competition of young readers 'Living Classics.'

Bishop Leonid of Argentina and South America took part in it as a member of the jury at the invitation of Mr. Gulyaev, the acting director of the Russian House, the Diocese's Telegram channel reports.

Children of several age groups who participated in the competition recited passages from the works of various authors, having shown their mastery of elocution, faultlessness of speech, and ability to perform before a large audience.

The winners of the regional stage could take part in the final stage of the competition which will take place at the Artek International Children's Center.

The Living Classics competition is held annually in 80 countries of the world.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/93024/>