

Easter Miracle international contest of children's drawings takes place in Turkey

DECR Communication Service, 05/06/2025

The Russian Orthodox Church's community in Izmir, in collaboration with the A.I. Solzhenitsyn Association for the Study of Russian Language and Culture (Izmir, Republic of Türkiye), organised the Easter Miracle International Children's Creative Competition. The project was supported by Priest Georgy Sergeyev, who is responsible for providing pastoral care to the Russian Church's faithful in the territory of Turkey, and the Foundation for Support of Christian Culture and Heritage.

The event has been held on a regular basis since 2013.

Taking part in this year's competition were 327 children and teenagers from 16 countries, including Turkey, Russia, Kazakhstan, China, the USA, South Korea, and Germany.

The winners received valuable prizes and gifts. To see the contest results, please visit its website.
