

Sunday Liturgy is celebrated at St. Nicholas Cathedral in the capital of Iran

DECR Communication Service, 23.06.2025.

On June 22, the 2nd Sunday after Pentecost and the feast day of All the Saints Who Shown Forth in the Land of Russia, the Divine Liturgy was celebrated at St. Nicholas Cathedral in Tehran, the Islamic Republic of Iran. The service was conducted by hegumen Varlaam (Dulsky), a cleric of the cathedral, with the blessing of its rector, Archimandrite Alexander (Zarkeshev).

The passages from the Letters of the Apostles and the festive Gospel were read during the service.

All those present at the church sang the Creed and Our Father together. After common confession before Holy Communion, the parishioners received the Holy Mysteries of Christ.

A tea party was held in the church after the service.
