

Patriarchal Exarch of Southeast Asia celebrates on 10th anniversary of the consecration of St.Panteleimon church in Sihanoukville, Cambodia

DECR Communication Service, 27.12.2025.

On December 25, the commemoration day of St Spyridon, Bishop of Trimythous, Metropolitan Sergy of Singapore and Southeast Asia, Patriarchal Exarch of Southeast Asia and interim administrator of the Diocese of Thailand, celebrated the Divine Liturgy at the church of the Great Martyr and Healer Panteleimon in Sihanoukville, the Kingdom of Cambodia. Priest Roman Postnikov assisted the archpastor.

On this day, the parish marked the 10th anniversary of the great consecration of this Orthodox church in Sihanoukville, the Exarchate's Telegram channel reports.

After the divine service, glorification of St. Spyridon of Trimythous was celebrated.

At the end of the Liturgy, Metropolitan Sergy congratulated the congregation on the feast and delivered a sermon.

After the service, the participants gathered for a common meal.

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/93887/>