

Maslenitsa festivities in Russian tradition take place at the Holy Trinity parish in Melbourne, Australia

DECR Communication Service, 25.02.2026.

On February 22, the eve of Lent, traditional Maslenitsa festivities took place at the Holy Trinity parish of the Russian Orthodox Church in Melbourne, Australia.

The folk song theatre called Zabava, which operates at the Holy Trinity parish, presented a costumed musical performance dedicated to the traditions of celebrating farewell to winter in Rus' and preparing for Lent.

After the concert, a competition for the best pancakes was held, and guests and participants were offered Maslenitsa treats.
