

Lenten Readings take place at Moscow Patriarchate's parish in Melbourne

DECR Communication Service, 30/03/2026

On 29th March 2026, traditional Lenten Readings were held at the Holy Trinity Parish of the Moscow Patriarchate in Melbourne, Australia.

During the event, a literary and musical composition dedicated to Great Lent was performed, along with musical pieces by Nun Juliania (Denisova). The parishioners and guests who attended the Lenten Reading also heard poems written by Russian poets about the last days of the earthly life of the Lord Jesus Christ.
