Editorial board of the Church and Time journal meets in Moscow

DECR Communication Service, 21/10/2026

On 20th October 2026, the editorial board of the Church and Time journal held its regular meeting on the premises of the Education Committee of the Russian Orthodox Church in St. Andrew's Stavropegic Monastery in Moscow.

The editorial board co-chairs – Metropolitan Anthony of Volokolamsk, Chairman of the Department for External Church Relations of the Moscow Patriarchate, and Archpriest Maxim Kozlov, Rector of the Saints Cyril and Methodius Theological Institute of Postgraduate Studies – presided at the meeting. Serving on the journal's editorial board are rectors of the Moscow, St. Petersburg and Sretenskaya Theological Academies, as well as senior staff members of the DECR and the Theological Institute of Postgraduate Studies, rectors of the Moscow Diocese theological seminaries, and Archpriest Nikolai Balashov, Advisor to the Patriarch of Moscow and All Rus'.

The participants in the meetings discussed various editorial and administrative matters, including Issues Nos. 113 and 114, which were being prepared for publication. They will contain articles on such traditional for the journal topics as theology and history of the Church. A special section of the November issue will be dedicated to the 80th birthday of the Primate of the Russian Orthodox Church.

With the blessing of His Holiness Patriarch Kirill of Moscow and All Rus', the journal, founded in 1991 with his direct involvement, has been published under the auspices of the Department for External Church Relations and the Saints Cyril and Methodius Theological Institute of Postgraduate Studies since 2023.

The journal papers are regularly published in the Russian Science Citation Index database.
