

Divine Liturgy was celebrated in the diocesan community of the Holy Apostle Luke in Tunbridge Wells

On September 18, 2021, on the feast of the Prophet Zechariah and Righteous Elizabeth, parents of St. John the Baptist (I), the Divine Liturgy was celebrated in the diocesan community of the Holy Apostle and Evangelist Luke in Tunbridge Wells.

After a long break, due to restrictions during the coronavirus pandemic, the divine service was celebrated by archpriest Vitaly Polishchuk, Dean of the Diocesan District of South-East England.

Upon the dismissal of the Liturgy, Father Vitaly addressed the parishioners with a welcoming speech and spiritual edification.

At the divine service, Orthodox residents from Tunbridge Wells and nearby settlements prayed and received the Holy Mysteries.

Divine services in the community will be held on a regular monthly basis. The next Divine Liturgy will take place on Saturday, 23 October.

*Website of the Diocese of Sourozh/
DECR Communication service*

Source: <https://mospat.ru/en/news/88098/>